| The event was held as a one-day gathering of young people from the local community, representatives of local authorities, and civil society. The moderator and speaker at the public forum was Olivera Orsić, a Bachelor of Economics, specializing in social media management, influencer marketing, content creation and community management (Community Manager). At the beginning of the forum, the representative of the lead partner presented the attendees with the results of the activities carried out after the first 6 months of project implementation. Following the presentation of the results achieved so far, the moderator delivered an |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

educational lecture to the attendees entitled "The role of social media in public advocacy and the expansion of democracy". After the lecture, the participants took part in a discussion on the influence of social media on public advocacy and the expansion of democracy, and discussed with representatives of local policymakers the presentation of young people's perspectives and their future in the local community. The Vision for the Future and the Youth Declaration were also discussed.
